

The airways belong to we the people: They should no be allowed to be controlled by only the rich who can buy them all up but by many so that we can have all views.